Video 00 - Course overview

Steve Simon

Syllabus

– Who will be my instructor(s)?
  • Steve Simon, PhD

Syllabus

– Which UMKC Departmentis this course from?
  - Department of Biomedical and Health Informatics

Syllabus

– How do my instructors prefer to be contacted outside of class?

- Steve Simon, 816-235-6617, simons@umkc.edu

Syllabus

- Preferred Contact Method
  - Email

Syllabus

– How quickly can I anticipate hearing back from one of my instructors if I ask send an email or post a question?

  - Most emails and phone calls will be returned within 24 hours. Email enquiries sent outside the regular work week may take longer for a response.

Syllabus

– If I'd like to drop-in to talk with my instructors about questions, applications of what we've discussed in class, or their research, when can I do that?

- Office hours are by appointment only, and will be conducted using the Zoom video conference system.

Syllabus

– Where are my instructors' links for us to meet outside of class?

  • Zoom links will be sent by email once an appointment has been scheduled.

Syllabus

- Catalog Course ID
  - MEDB 5510

Syllabus

– How many Credit Hours will I receive after successfully completing this course?
  - 3

Syllabus

– What are the Meeting Times and Location for the course?

  • One section of this class meets on Wednesdays from 1pm to 3:30pm. The other is an online class with no pre-specified meeting times.

Syllabus

– What is the format of this course?
  - One section is live lecture. The other is asynchronous online.

Syllabus

– What is this course about (Course Description)?
- …

Syllabus

– What are the knowledge, skills or perspectives (Student Learning Outcomes) that I will gain from the course?
  - …

Syllabus

– Are there Pre-requisites/Co-requisites that are key to my success in this course? + …

Syllabus

– Will I be dropped from class if I not attend class? What happens if I do not attend class without communicating with my instructor?

- Maintaining accurate enrollment records throughout the term is a partnership between instructors and students. Instructors are responsible for verifying student attendance and participation within the first three weeks (16 week course) through the Attendance Verification Survey (administered through UMKC Connect) as well as maintain records of participation throughout the term so that the la

Syllabus

- How do I get permission before recording class sessions?
    - Instructor(s) may record class sessions for the sole purpose of sharing the recording with students who can't attend class. Instructor(s) will take care not to disclose personally identifiable information from the student education records during the recorded lesson. Students are not permitted to record class sessions without written consent from the course instructor.

Syllabus

– Is there Recommended Technology that I should have access to?

- You will need access to the computing resources necessary to complete this course through personal and/or University channels (e.g., computer labs). Our course will take place within the Canvas LMS and utilizing various software technologies that facilitate interaction and communication. We can make alternate arrangements should your reason for being without computer access warrant an accommo

Syllabus

– If I am having difficulty is there Technical Support that I can contact?

  • The links below will connect you with answers and information for the most common technical questions and issues students experience: UM System Keep Learning; UMKC Instructional Design/Technology

Syllabus

– What other academic policies should I review?
  • Additional important information about UMKC's policies and resources can be found here.

Syllabus

– Do I need to have a Mask/Face-Coverings while on campus?

  - UMKC's mask/face-coverings policy is available here. Any student requesting an ADA accommodation for the University mask/face covering policy should contact Scott Laurent the Office of Disability Services as soon as possible by calling (816) 235-5696 or via email at laurentr@umkc.edu.

Syllabus

– If I have a disability (including COVID-related disabilities), who can assist me with getting important accommodations on campus?

  • Any student seeking COVID-related academic accommodations should contact Scott Laurent the Office of Disability Services as soon as possible by calling (816) 235-5696 or via email at laurentr@umkc.edu.

Syllabus

– If I have questions regarding COVID-19 General Information, where do I go?

  • Up to date information and FAQs regarding COVID-19 may be found on the UMKC COVID website.

Syllabus

– Required and Recommended Materials
  • …

Syllabus

– Course Expectations, Course Policies, Requirements and Standards for Student Coursework and Student Behavior
  • You are expected to do your homework independently. You can seek help from your instructors, from colleagues, or from the Internet to review your writing, but you cannot have them write for you.

Syllabus

– Evaluation and Grading

- Students will be required to post messages on the Canvas discussion boards, take brief quizzes on Canvas, and submit homework assignments in PDF format on Canvas. Your work is due on the specified date. We need to keep the class on the same time schedule for a variety of reasons. If illness, family issues, work responsibilities, or other commitments prevent you from completing on time, please
- This course is …

Syllabus

– Final Exam
  - This is no final exam. Your final project needs to be completed prior to the last day of classes (2021-05-07, Friday).

Syllabus

    – Module01

Assignments are still being finalized but will be available soon in the course overview for details on individual assignments.